

AWARD-WINNING FILM THE STARFISH THROWERS VOD RELEASE ON WORLD FOOD DAY
Minnesota-made documentary profiles three fiercely compassionate individuals making a difference

For Immediate Release

Minneapolis, MN, October 1, 2015—The Starfish Throwers award-winning documentary film will have its digital Video on Demand release on Friday, October 16—coinciding with World Food Day, a program of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

"We're thrilled to be releasing this film on a day that is all about inspiring people to look at how we fight hunger with a fresh perspective. As the subjects of the film so beautifully demonstrate, we all have the potential to create positive change—one small action at a time." —Jesse Roesler, the film's producer/director.

Acclaimed by The Huffington Post as "The most heartwarming film of 2014," and winner of over a dozen film festival awards, The Starfish Throwers is available on iTunes now. On October 16, the film will debut on the following internet and gaming platforms: Google Play, YouTube, Playstation, Xbox, Amazon Video on Demand, Vudu, and Hoopla. In addition, the following television providers in the US and Canada will carry the film On Demand: Comcast, Direct TV, Time Warner Cable, AT&T U-verse, Dish Network, Cox, Charter, Verizon, Suddenlink, Mediacom, Insight, RCN, Rogers, Shaw, and Eastlink TV.

About the film—Worlds apart, a five-star chef, a twelve year-old girl, and a retired schoolteacher discover how their individual efforts to feed the poor ignite a movement in the fight against hunger. Despite being constantly reminded that hunger is far too big for one person to solve, they persevere and see their impact ripple further than their individual actions.
